Background

Having lost his beloved family member in a disaster, Mr. Yeh Tsang-jung, the founder of the Taiwan International Emergency Rescue Team, is not a stranger to the feelings of vulnerability and helplessness that plague individuals in face of critical danger. With the help of over 300 sympathetic supporters, however, he managed to establish the Taiwan Rescue Association in 1994. The tides shifted again when the 9/21 earthquake struck Taiwan. The influx of international aid made Mr. Yeh realize that emergency support needed to be made available on a global level and he renamed his association the Taiwan International Emergency Rescue Team in 2001 to reflect the scope of his mission.

There is no holding back in the name of saving human lives.

Organization
